

DRAMA- HEART SKIT

Girl: She comes out and mimes a figure of a heart. She looks up and gives her heart to Jesus and is happy.

Boy: He comes out and sees girl. He shyly waves at her and flirts. She shyly waves back.

They slowly approach each other and hold hands, swinging them back and forth. He mimes and motions for her to give him her heart.

She “talks” to God about this and takes her heart back from God and shyly gives it to boy.

He begins to play with her heart and tosses it in the air; eventually it falls to the ground and breaks. (He leaves.)

She begins to cry and gets down on the ground to pick up the pieces of her heart.

She stands and gives her heart back to God. Afterward, she is happy and raises her hands giving praise to God.

Boy approaches again and once again tries to flirt with girl.

She is angry and shakes her head no to him.

He motions that he wants her heart again.

She shakes her head no and tries to get him to give his heart to Jesus.

Finally, after some persuasion, he gives his heart to the Lord.

They rejoice together and motion for the audience to give their hearts to the Lord also.
